

Carmel Stephens

Carmel is currently playing the role of 'Cora' on Ros na Rún for TG4. She recently played the role of Flavia for OBITUARY S2 for RTÉ/Hulu and 'Mother' in Glass Mask's production of 'Mother and Child' by Jon Fosse.

Other recent theatre credits include 'Laced' at Scene and Heard Festival of New Work, 24 Hour Plays at the Abbey Theatre, The Snapper at the Gate Theatre, Dublin and The Devil Himself with AboutFace Theatre.

Recent TV work includes Harry Wild (Acorn/RTE) and Madame Blanc (Channel 5).

Currently appearing in festivals is the short, Homofónia, in which she plays a lead role and was nominated as Best Supporting Actor at the Louth Film Festival.

Carmel was part of the core cast of RTE's flagship soap, Fair City for many years and also of the Irish Language soap, Rós na Rún (TG4).

She was a founding member of Inis Theatre Company and co-wrote and appeared in most of their shows, sharing the Best Actress award in the Dublin Fringe Festival.

She has twenty years of experience as a dubbing artist and is particularly proud to be the Irish language voice of Sandy Cheeks in Spongebob Squarepants.
